

October 2022 Bulletin

Dear All,

Greetings!

Hope you all are safe and in good health.

Half the financial year is already over, giving us that same feeling again – how time flies!

These are indeed fast times, where we really need to be on our toes in our work. Everything is happening at a pace not seen before. Including growth. The Indian economy is already in the top gear, concentrating now on continual growth. We are seeing some ups and downs in other parts of the world, but experts are still maintaining we will keep growing.

The past quarter was busy for IQS. Training, again, kept most of us busy. International training programs in four countries, many in-campus training programs with customers and the regular scheduled courses assured us that we are back to normal times. It is good to see that candidates are still going for online or nowadays hybrid training courses. We started a new office with training facility in Bhosari, the busy industrial area in Pune. The international department bagged some very good training orders, with a prestigious and large one in U.A.E. The series of one-day seminars continues, with the latest one on Basic Metallurgy seeing a very high number of persons joining.

The NDT team was all eager to fly to the customer and service the big contract it bagged in Gujarat. Consultancy team maintained their steady rate of ASME consultancies. We kept adding qualifications to our team members' portfolios as is always the case, believing we can serve you better only with quality people at hand.

We thank each one of you again for your trust and faith in us!

Keep safe, keep healthy, and keep going!

Thanks and Best Wishes!!
